NALCONAGAR

MONTHLY REPORT OF SENIOR DPS NALCONAGAR

JANUARY- 2018

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE MONTH

2ND JANUARY : STAFF MEETING

A staff meeting after winter vacation was held for teaching staff on 2nd January to discuss the planning for the session 2018 - 2019.

5TH JANUARY : INTER HOUSE-BHAJAN COMPETITION

Competitions give an opportunity to every student to display the talent he / she possess.

The Chief Judge on the occasion was Mr. Bipin Bihari Dash (NSB, Angul) and Mr. Bidyadhara Nath, eminent singer Angul.. On a sunny morning the participants from the four Houses were ready to put up something spectacular. They sang the Bhajans melodiously and left the audience awe-struck! The lilting notes were soulful and enthralled the audience thoroughly. The rhythmic playing of instruments added spark to the competition. The judges encouraged the students to take part in such kind of activities that help them meditate and connect to God. They congratulated all the participants for their confidence in singing.

5TH JANUARY INTER HOUSE COOKING WITHOUT FIRE COMPETITION

“Learning is experience. Everything else is just information”

The aim of these competitions was to provide a platform to students to showcase their talent in various fields and explore new areas of interest. The students of classes VIII & IX donned their ‘Chef Caps’ to exhibit their culinary skills in ‘Cooking without Fire’ Inter House competition held on 5th January. They offered a treat to eye as well as to taste buds through the dishes they prepared at this competition.

The enthusiastic participants surprised everyone with their culinary talents by preparing dishes like fruit salad, sweet snacks and salty savoures etc. Artifacts and food items displayed were a visual treat and were presented in an artistic and aesthetic style. Dishes were judged on nutrition and taste by esteemed judges Ms. Alka Mishra and Mrs. Radha Basu, They interacted with the budding chefs to find out the ingredients of the recipes, nutritional value and the historical significance of the dishes prepared by them. Judges were overawed by the efforts of the participants and results were announced amidst tough competition. The event not only provided a platform to the students to foster their creativity and decision making skills but also helped them explore their hidden talents and discover new areas of interest. The winners of the competition were-

12TH JANUARY: INTER HOUSE VEDIC MATHEMATICS COMPETITION

“ $7+7 \div 7+7 \times 7-7$ ..... = QUIZ.

Children are not limited in what they can do when they have mathematical skills because to a mathematician ‘real life’ is a special case. Well said.....and to prove these skills, students of classes VI & VII participated in an Inter- House Vedic Mathematics Quiz on 12 th January. The going was good for the teams representing the four houses. Life has a way of testing. Every day is a new quiz and every morning a proof that we have passed. The teams geared up and energetically set out to face the challenge.

The teams fought it out as the rounds progressed with the questions getting tougher. The following students were the winners-

Name	House	Position
DevankAgarwalla	Ravi	1 st
Chinmaya Nanda	Ravi	2 nd
Anipskumar Jena	Mahanadi	3 rd

14TH JANUARY : SPECIAL ASSEMBLY FOR MAKAR SANKRANTI CELEBRATION

MakarSankranti is believed traditionally to mark the arrival of spring in India. As it is the festival of Sun God and he is regarded as the symbol of divinity and wisdom, the festival also holds an eternal meaning to it. It is a harvest festival celebrated in South India. Sankranti is perhaps the only Indian festival that falls on the same day every year (14th January).

At a special assembly, students were introduced to how Sankranti is celebrated. Students narrated how the Harvest festival is celebrated in various States of India. Harvest festival was celebrated by students with songs and speech. The importance of Kite Flying and various traditional delicacies prepared during this festival were discussed. Students took the pride of distributing traditional dishes to the inmates of DPS and cherished this memorable moment.

DPS NALCONAGAR LEADS IN REMEDIAL TEACHING

Remedial Teaching Experience reveals that, student learners being promoted from one class to another till class IX are sometimes found to be behind the expected level of achievement required to keep pace with the secondary stage studies. Consequently, the problem of non achievement in different terminal examinations has become very acute. So much so, the need for remedial teaching for classes VI to XI is being seriously conceived upon. The remedial classes for classes XI started on 8th January and classes VI to X on 11th January.

19TH JANUARY : INTER HOUSE FANCY DRESS COMPETITION

DPS organized an 'Inter – House Fancy Dress Competition' for the students from classes VI to VII on 19th January on the title "We Value Virtues" It was the most awaited event, as the students came forward displaying their costumes. Four participants from each house tried to bring their chosen characters to life on stage. It was a pleasure to watch children dressed up as common Farmer, Mythological characters, Political leaders and Save Girl Child. The competition brought about a fun-filled ambience and the audiences as well as the judges were generous with their applause. It was indeed a colourful and exciting event which would be etched in our memory for a very long time. The event was judged by Shri Amarendra Mishra, AGM, HRD, Estate Nalco and Shri Mani Ranjan Patnaik, Sr. Manager, HRD, Estate Nalco. The criteria for the judgment were Costume, Expressions, Theme relevance and Presentation

Name	Class	House	Position

22ND JANUARY : DPS CREATED HISTORY- GRAND CELEBRATION FOR SARASWATI PUJA

On the auspicious day of Saraswati Puja, the students and faculty of DPS came together to seek the blessings of the goddess of knowledge, music, art and culture and celebrated the traditional Saraswati Puja with great fervour on 22nd January. All the teachers and students gathered on the school premises to celebrate the day. Puja was offered to the Goddess of Learning by all the inmates of the school. A beautiful rendition from students transcended the ambience. It was an attempt to preserve the Indian culture, to impart a sense of respect for long established traditions.

The celebration came to a close with distribution of 'Prasada'. Gaiety and piety went hand in hand to live an indelible impression in the mind of all those who witnessed the programme. Saraswati Puja is just another attempt by the students and staff to preserve the Indian culture and to impart a sense of respect towards long-established traditions. These celebrations ensure that students find a home away from home. Both the faculty and students joined hands together, with great zeal to make the event a memorable one also evoking the blessing of the goddess of knowledge to have a successful academic and career growth.

26TH JANUARY : DPS CELEBRATED 69TH REPUBLIC DAY

The 69th Republic Day was celebrated in all its solemnity and grandeur at Delhi Public School (Jr. Wings) on 26th January. The students saluted the National Flag and pledged themselves to uphold the honour and integrity, diversity and uniqueness that is “India”.

The junior choir presented a melodious parody of patriotic songs “Utkala Amma Janmabhumi” The lyrics reverberated in the surroundings. It was followed by a beautiful folk dance on Freedom and Unity in Diversity The melodious music and graceful movements of the dancers left the audience spell bound. These were followed by stirring speeches by the students in English and Hindi.

Our revered Principal addressed the students and urged them to do their best and feel proud to be Indians. The students dispersed with the image of the fluttering tricolor in their minds. In fact, it was a day of rejoicing and merry-making with a true feeling of oneness. Token of love was given to all the outgoing students. Summing up, the day was great, filled with colours and fun and excitement!

28TH JANUARY : STUDENT ENRICHMENT PROGRAMME

Shri H. P. Das, Director of Manav Adhyan Kendra conducted a workshop for class IX & XI students with a view to analyzing the importance of human values in making a strong personality. In an interactive session, he held a question & answer session to ignite the young minds focusing on the need for strong values in a human being.

29TH JANUARY : DPS CELEBRATES GRANDPARENTS' DAY

Grandparents are a family's greatest treasure, the founders of a loving legacy, the greatest storytellers, the keepers of traditions. Grandparents are the family's strong foundation. Through their special love and care, grandparents keep a family close at heart. To honour them DPS Nalconagar celebrated Grandparents Day on 29th January and received an over whelming response with more than 500 grandparents on campus. It was duly appreciated by one and all.

The function started by welcoming the grandparents in rich Indian traditional manner with shlokas as the background score. It was followed by lighting of the lamp. The cultural programme included a modern dance performance by class III students. The Primary Section students beautifully performed on a song dedicated to Dadaji and Dadiamma. To balance the tones set by the events thus far, we had Games in which grandparents participated with great zeal and a short skit followed by a Folk Dance performance. The winner Grandparents from the Game were greeted with gifts by the dignitaries and our Principal which brought a twinkle to their otherwise, dull eyes. Appropriate music and enthusiastic grandparent-grandchild combinations made these events runaway hits with all those present.

After this, respected ED (S& P) NALCO, Our Pro-Vice Chairman, Shri R.K.Mishra's address left everyone speechless. The School Staff also interacted on a one-to-one basis with the guests, during the high tea arranged for them. The general mood was one of exultation and everyone seemed truly happy. It was a successful event indeed, and the School as always would be pleased to organize many such more events.

30TH JANUARY : AWARENESS PROGRAMME ON IMMUNIZATION CAMPAIGN

An Awareness programme organized by WHO & NHM on Immunization Campaign was conducted for classes VI to X in the school auditorium by Block Programme Officer Mrs.MonalishaPradhan from Banarpal Block made the students aware of MR Vaccination till the age of 15 years. For this programme Nodal teachers were sent for training immunization programme.

30TH JANUARY : FAREWELL (CLASS XII)

“I cannot say goodbye to those whom I have grown to love, for the memories we have made will last a lifetime, and will: never know a goodbye.”

The Farewell was organized by the students and teachers of Class XI on 30th January in the school stage where students of Class 11th bid farewell to the outgoing students of class 12 with great enthusiasm! Our esteemed Principal enlightened the students with his inspirational speech. Students of class 11 presented very interesting skits, group dance and Solo singing performances which entertained the audience to the fullest. The performances were thoroughly enjoyed by the audience! Many interesting and tricky games were played to pep up the environment. A parting speeches were given by Ex-Head Boy and Head Girl. Different Titles were awarded to different students.

AITSE EXAMINATION 2017

Amlan Deep Mohapatra brought laurels to the institution as he secured second rank in National Level AITSE Exam held in November 2017. He will be receiving a Tablet PC, Gold Medal and a certificate of participation. Congratulation!

31ST JANUARY : PTA MEETING (CLASS XII)

A PTA meeting for class XII was held on 31st January to discuss the performance of students with their parents. Parents were given feedback on their ward's performance in Pre-Board Test 2. It was a great interaction between teachers & the parents for the development of their children where they discussed both the strength & area of improvement. The PTM came to an end with the conclusion that the progress of the students depends on the joint effort of parents & teachers.

MONTHLY REPORT OF JUNIOR DPS NALCONAGAR

JANUARY- 2018

5TH JANUARY : PURPLE COLOUR DAY (PREP)

To get an idea about the importance of colours, children observed Purple Colour Day in our school. The students and teachers reported to school in various shades of purple coloured outfits. Various activities were organised in the classrooms with purple coloured paper which the children enjoyed very much.

Portion for the final term (Dec, Jan & Feb) was discussed by the teachers. The Vice Principal, Ms.Suchitra Mishra enlightened the parents with parenting tips.

26TH JANUARY : 69TH REPUBLIC DAY CELEBRATION

26th January is a special day for every Indian as on 26th January, 1950, the constitution of India came into force. This year Republic Day was celebrated with pomp and show in our institution. The patriotic fervour warmed up the cold winter morning as the students, teachers and parents of the school gathered to hoist the National Flag. The Principal of our school, Dr.B.K.Mishra unfurled the National flag which was followed by the tunes of National Anthem played by the school choir and orchestra group. To mark the importance of the day, speeches were delivered by Saraswati Hansdah of class-V and Spruha Roul of class-VIII. An air of patriotic fervour permeated the atmosphere by a medley of patriotic songs presented by the choir of junior school. This was followed by a spectacular dance performance by the senior students on the dhun of "Vande Mataram" which brought the stage alive. The Principal addressed the gathering on this auspicious day. In his speech he encouraged the students to work with honesty and dedication for the nation.

26th & 27th JANUARY : BONFIRE CELEBRATION & OVERNIGHT CAMP (CLASS V)

The DPS family, Nalconagar chose this momentous occasion to organize a 'Bonfire Night' followed by 'Overnight camp' for the students of class-V.

The highlights of the programme were the cultural evening lit up with the lighting of Bonfire by the honourable Pro-Vice Chairman of our school, Shri .R.K.Mishra, Ms.M.Mishra, Shri. P. K. Mohanty, Member (Admin), Shri.S.K.Mishra, Commandant CISF and other dignitaries of the evening.

Various programmes laced the evening. The creative skill of the students of class IV & V while organizing the puppet show on the stage with the hand puppets made by the students was a treat for the eye. The students danced and swayed to the lively beats around the fire. The delicious meals and lip smacking snacks provided at regular intervals were thoroughly relished by the students.

“Twinkling skies, cold winter night and classmates for company” – the students had the time of their lifetime, as they spent the night in the school. The students enjoyed the company of their peers and time away from home as they were kept engaged in various sessions organized on hands on activities, movie show and games. Laughter and giggles echoed through the corridors of the school as they enjoyed sharing jokes, riddles and antakshari with their friends and teachers.

The camp concluded on the morning of 27th January with “keep fit” exercises and a peace march (Prabhatpheri) on the streets of Nalconagar. It was a memorable experience for all the students and was an event to cherish forever.

29TH JANUARY: GRAND PARENTS’ DAY

Grandparents are a family’s greatest treasure, the founder of a loving legacy. Through their love and care, Grandparents keep a family close at heart.

To honour these precious species of our society, DPS Nalconagar celebrated “Grand Parent’s Day” on 29th of January, 2018.

In the beginning of the function, all grandparents were greeted with flowers, tilak and diyas as a mark of our culture. Bhajan, as the background score added a spiritual essence to the atmosphere. The event began with the lighting of lamp by the honourable Chief guest, the Pro-Vice Chairman of our school, Shri. R. K. Mishra, ED (S & P ) Complex , among other dignitaries of the evening. Welcome address was delivered by Dr. B. K. Mishra, the Principal of our school. The day witnessed a cultural show with scintillating performances comprising bhajans, dances and skits by the students. To balance the tones set by the events, we had organized several games in which grandparents participated with great zeal and the winner grandparents were greeted with gift prizes from the chief guest which brought twinkle to their eyes. Appropriate music and enthusiastic participation of grandparents and grandchildren made the event a runaway hit with more than 800 grandparents present at the auspicious evening. Moving ahead with a goal of nurturing our children as respectful and responsible citizens, the children washed the feet of grandparents on the stage.

It was indeed a satisfying experience for the faculty members too as the event displayed our deep rooted adherence to Indian tradition and culture. At the end, a vote of thanks was proposed by our Vice Principal, Ms.Suchitra Mishra. The success of the event was evident through the happy and joyful smiles on the faces of the grandparents.

The End
